

Vocabulary Ninja – SPaG Spotter

Can you spot?	Circle it in the sentence. Answers
The nouns	James was always hungry.
A conjunction	The owl had his midnight rest and waited for the rain to pass.
The verb	The bird fluttered up onto the branch.
A preposition	There was a party on the beach.
The determiners	The waves crash upon the golden sand.
An expanded noun phrase	Freshly cut mango sat on the tray.
The adjectives	The blazing sun belted heat upon the happy party goers.
An adverb	The music stopped quickly as it started to rain.
A word with a prefix	The boy misheard the directions and was running the wrong way.
The subordinate clause	Before he knew it, he was well and truly lost.
The main clause	Luckily the boy's friend found him despite the storm that was brewing.
Can you add?	Add it to the sentence in the correct place.
Inverted commas to mark speech	"Quick this way," shouted Brett.
A comma to mark the end of the subordinate clause	As the clouds gathered, the storm gained strength.
The missing punctuation	Does it always thunder when there is lightning?
An apostrophe for contraction	It didn't feel like it was the middle of June.