

1. Underline the adjectives in green (3), verbs in red (1), nouns in orange (2) and adverbs in blue(1):

The tired teacher slowly sat down in the comfy, old chair.

2. Write these verbs in the past tense:

drink = _____ work = _____

3. Add either a or an before the following words / phrases:

_____ nice cup of tea _____ orange tin of paint

4. Underline the fronted adverbial:

Before I go to sleep, I like to read two pages of my book.

5. Underline the determiner:

"Who ate all of those cakes?" Mum demanded.

6. Apostrophes for contraction

Write the shortened (contracted) versions of these phrases. Example: Did not = didn't

Is not = _____ Have not = _____

7. Apostrophe for possession

Example: The bike belonging to one girl = the girl's bike.
 The bike belonging to two girls = the girls' bike.

The pens belonging to one teacher = _____

The pens belonging to two teachers = _____

How many dragons are there?.....The dragons' cave (One dragon / more than one dragon)

How many snails are there?.....The snail's shell (One snail / more than one snail)

8. Write your own sentences using the following words:

a. division	d. collision
b. invasion	e. decision
c. erosion	f. confusion

ANSWERS

1. The tired teacher slowly sat down in the comfy, old chair.
2. drank / worked
3. A nice cup... / An orange tin...
4. Before I go to sleep, I like to read two pages of my book.
5. "Who ate all of those cakes?" Mum demanded.
6. isn't / haven't
7. belonging to one teacher = the teacher's pens
belonging to two teachers = the teachers' pens
The dragons' cave = more than one dragon
The snail's shell = one snail
8. (Any sentence that demonstrates an understanding of the meaning of the words and where the key word is spelt correctly.)